

THE STUDIO —AT— SHADOWLAND STAGES

The Studio at SHADOWLAND STAGES is a flexible black box theatre with an approximately 30' x 40' sprung floor performance space. Located at 14 Market Street, in Ellenville, New York, It features approximately 35 seats on telescoping risers as well as additional individual chairs that can be added to bring the space up to a comfortable 99 seat capacity; and black curtains that can be repositioned depending upon how the space is being used.

Ample green room space, dressing rooms with full shower and storage are available for longer term rentals, and your audience will enjoy a separate lockable box office / concessions area and well appointed restrooms. A baby grand piano is available for rental within the space, and a moving fee and/or tuning fee can be arranged. Full 88 key electric keyboard is also available upon request.

The gorgeous sunlit lobby wraps the corner of Center Street and Market Street and features vast windows for display space / marketing, and are perfect for staging catering or even film / television shoots and photography.

In addition to classes, workshops, performances and rehearsals, the building makes a great special event location. A portable bar can be placed within the space, and your party or film holding location can seat up to 130 comfortably.

For live-streamed events, film screenings and online conferences a video projector and pop up screen are available for rental and high speed internet access is included for free. During the pandemic, if you need a place from which to broadcast and/or just more room to social distance for your meeting, give us a call about renting The Studio at SHADOWLAND STAGES.
